

Coming Soon - Fish Fest! 17th April

On April 17th Fish Fest will be held at The Toad showcasing beers from two of our favorite breweries; Roosterfish and Dogfish Head.

We will also be putting on a selection of fish dishes on our menu to accompany the fishtastic event!

Featuring:

Dogfish Head

- 60min IPA
- 90min IPA
- Aprihop ale
- Chateau Jiahu
- Raison D'Etre
- Indian Brown Ale

Roosterfish

- Nut Brown
- Hop Warrior
- Oak aged Hopped Amber

Also Upcoming...

Allagash Curieux on cask - Remember we managed to get a cask of the Allagash Curieux Belgian style triple, aged in Jim-Beam bourbon barrels back in January? Well guess what.... we got two! We have been aging one in the cask chiller for six months and will be unleashing it sometime in June! Check our website for updates! www.theoldtoad.com

Beer and Chocolate event - We will also be holding a beer and chocolate event sometime soon; pairing fine chocolates with various chocolate stouts, including our cylinder keg of Southern Tier Choklat Imperial Stout, the only one remaining out of the two sent to Northern New York state (unless you can prove otherwise!), possibly the best chocolate stout you will ever taste, if you're quick enough of course!

The Old Toad on Facebook

Recently we have created a profile and a group for The Old Toad on facebook so we can keep everyone updated on what's going on at The Old Toad, even if it's just announcing who is on the bar that day!

The Toad Times

APRIL 2008

The New Monthly Toadie Times!

Recently we decided that one dose of Toad Times isn't enough for our customers, so we are now treating you to a monthly fix!

In This Months Issue:

St. Patrick's Day 2008

Spirits were high once again this year for St Patrick's day at The Old Toad! After enjoying the parade in downtown Rochester, Irish and Non-Irish customers carried on the festivities of the Irish holiday by coming to The Toad for some tasty 'Lucky Charms', 'Colcannon', a few green pints of Harp, and for some of our other Irish ales we specially put on for the week. The staff thoroughly enjoyed the day and had that "pot 'o' gold" attitude, dressed in green and accordingly decorated.

New Guest Beers & Fridge

Recently we have installed a glass fronted fridge behind the bar. This gives you the opportunity to see what new and different bottled beer we have to offer as well as part of our extensive and diverse range.

Us British folk at the Toad can cater to everybody's taste buds and offer many different styles of bottled beer on our permanent menu. To keep things fresh, we offer a variety of "guest" bottles. Here are a few of our favorites...

Dogfish Head Raison D'Etre (12oz) - Deep mahogany ale brewed with Belgian beet sugars, green raisins and Belgium-style yeast

Dogfish Head 90 min IPA (12oz) - An Imperial India Pale Ale with single, constant 90 minute hop addition balanced with English Two-row Barley

Brooklyn Local One (750ml) - Made with forge barley malt, hops from Germany, aromatic raw sugar from Mauritius and yeast from Belgium. Golden colour and dynamic, complex flavors.

Wells Bombardier (16.9oz) - Brewed with natural mineral water, English 'Challenger' and 'Golding' hops and 'Crystal' malt to give sultana fruit taste and tempting spicy aroma.

Congratulations!

For the 2 or 3 people in Rochester that don't know, our Gaffer Jules has another child on the way! Everybody at The Old Toad would like to give our congratulations to Jules & Jerry Suplicki and wish them all the best through the pregnancy and birth of their second child.

Curry Club

Our Curry club is getting a larger following every week at The Toad. For those of you that don't know; we hold a Curry club every 1st and 3rd Tuesday of the Month (alongside our usual menu). The Toadies take it in turns to couple up and make three Curry's (including a vegetarian choice) and compliment them with sides such as onion bhaji, poppadoms, pita bread, rice or kebabs to name a few.

Next Curry Clubs presented by:

- 04/15 Lucy & Claire
- 05/06 Mark & 'Duffy'
- 05/20 Matt & Phil
- 06/03 Will & Tom
